Comfort & Relax

The Komodo sofa, like a paradise island, is a place of escape, a bubble of peace in which to take refuge to wander towards distant worlds.

The sofa is available with two and with three seats, with structure in natural, anthracite or antique oak, and bronze details, or completely upholstered in leather. The seat cushion, not removable, has rectangular quilting finished with a sartorial passementerie combined with the fabric chosen for the upholstery. The three-seater sofa with two backrests can be accessorized with a leather and bronze coffee table.

The Komodo sofa is part of a family that includes a chaise longue, footstools and a bed, all sharing the same aesthetic.
